DEATH BENEFIT NOTES

Payments

This form is used to select up to three beneficiaries to receive lump sum death benefits from your SIPP, if you have more beneficiaries than this please use an additional form.

On the subsequent deaths of the beneficiaries of your pension fund any residual funds can be passed on to a beneficiary of their choice using this form.

Tax (Lump Sums)

As the original member, if you were to die aged under 75 then you will be able to pass on the SIPP fund to any beneficiary without any tax charge, as long as this is done within 2 years of the date of your death. Where any of your pension fund is uncrystallised then that part is tested against the Lifetime Allowance.

If you die at age 75 or over and your beneficiary chooses to receive a lump sum, they will pay income tax at their own marginal rate. The lump sum payment will not be tested against your Lifetime Allowance.

Tax (Income)

If your beneficiary elects to take an income then this will be free of income tax if you die before age 75 – this is providing that you designate the pension fund on or after 6th April 2015 and this is done within 2 years of the date of your death. Again, where any of the fund is uncrystallised then this part is tested against the Lifetime Allowance.

If you die at age 75 or over and your beneficiary chooses to take an income from the fund, they will pay income tax at their own marginal rate.

Tax (Subsequent Deaths of Beneficiaries)

On the deaths of the recipients of the pension fund, any leftover pension fund can be passed on to a beneficiary of their own choosing. The age at death of the immediate predecessor is the important factor in deciding the tax position of any further payments.

It is important to note that the above is based on our own understanding of the relevant legislation and regulations and may be subject to change. The tax treatment will depend on the individual circumstances of each client and may be subject to change in the future.
